

COAL DISPUTE IS PUT OVER

Until After the Christmas Holidays by the Attorney-General's Statement

GOVERNMENT MAY BRING PRESSURE

To Carry Out President Wilson's Proposal to Settle Coal Controversy

Washington, D. C., Dec. 23.—Settlement of the controversy between the operators and Attorney General Palmer regarding the coal strike probably will go over until after the Christmas holiday. The statement of Mr. Palmer that "the government will not assume that the operators will break faith and, indeed, ways will be found to keep faith in this vitally important transaction," was considered by those directly concerned in the coal situation. This statement was regarded as an indication that Attorney General Palmer planned to bring the full pressure of the government to bear if necessary, to carry out President Wilson's proposal for the settlement of the coal controversy.

The proposed meeting of operators in Cleveland to-day to discuss the terms had been called off and it was said they agreed to withhold announcement of their policy toward the government proposal until the conference to be held after Christmas.

Despite the operators' refusal to accept the terms, Attorney General Palmer said, the commission will proceed with its work and "I have no doubt that upon further reflection the operators will see the wisdom of hearty co-operation with it."

Senator Frelinghuysen, Republican, New Jersey, chairman of the Senate committee investigating the coal situation, entered into the controversy by declaring in a formal statement that in the government negotiations, "there must have been some sort of a secret deal made in addition to the signed statement."

"In any event," he added, "the public may look for an increase in the price of coal or another strike." He characterized the settlement terms as "loaded dice for the American people."

KEEN FOR TEUTONIC BUSINESS.

Allies' Business Men Are Going Into Conference for It.

The Hague, Dec. 23.—Trade conferences between bankers, merchants and salesmen of the entente countries and central powers have succeeded the mysterious gatherings of spies in the hotels here and at Amsterdam. The iron, steel, shoes, ships and sealing wax of commerce are the topics instead of the routes of submarines, troop ships and food ships.

Whatever may be the opinion in America, or England, or France, regarding resumption of business with Germany and Austria, the representatives of the business concerns of those countries show nothing but a keen desire for such trade at the conference here.

The other day, at one of the Hague hotels, the groups seated in the lobby, engaged in earnest conversation on trade subjects, included:

One English ship owner and director of one of Germany's biggest trans-Atlantic lines.

Two Belgian bankers and a German automobile manufacturer.

Three American traveling salesman and a Hungarian importer.

All of them so far as the correspondent could judge from the fragments of their conversation that came to his ears were on friendly terms and keen for business.

Whether It Is of the Nose, Throat, or Other Organs, Get Rid of It.

Catarrh of the nose or throat when it becomes chronic weakens the delicate lung tissues, deranges the digestive organs, and may lead to consumption. It impairs the taste, smell and hearing, and affects the voice. It is a constitutional disease and requires a constitutional remedy.

OREGON TUNING UP FOR CRIMSON TEAM

Second Team of the Western University Is Using Harvard Plays in Preparation for New Year's Game.

Pasadena, Cal., Dec. 23.—Stiff scrimmage work occupied the time to-day of the members of the University of Oregon football team who are to battle against Harvard here on New Year's day.

Coach Huntington planned to have the second string men, using Harvard plays, go against the regulars. The men are in excellent condition already, he said, and can stand almost any amount of hard work.

An indication of the interest which the forthcoming game has aroused is furnished by long lines of men and women waiting for the opening seat sale. Some of them declared to-day they had held their places themselves or by substitutes for more than 40 hours in order to have first chance at tickets. All tickets so far sold have gone to members of the Tournament of Roses association, each of whom is permitted to buy eight tickets. Public sale is to begin to-morrow.

PERSHING BACK IN HOME TOWN

Laclede, Mo., Overjoyed to Welcome Leader of A. E. F.

SILVER LOVING CUP GIVEN BY FRIENDS

Town Was in Gala Attire—Many Notables Were Present

Laclede, Mo., Dec. 23.—General John J. Pershing returned to his boyhood home to-day. More touching even than his farewells to the men with whom he served in France and for depth of feeling vied with the acclaim accorded him in Congress, was the reception of his former fellow townsmen. Aside from the presence of the governor, Frederick D. Gardner, and a host of other notables, the town was in gala attire, flags and tri-colored bunting formed a canopy over the town's single street and under that the general, with Governor Gardner, Miss Mae Pershing, his sister, Warren, his young son, Mayor Allen and a group of friends of boyhood days drove to the old Pershing home for an old-time dinner.

Formality had been laid aside, as far as was possible for a day of hand shaking and greeting of acquaintances un- seen since the general left here 35 years ago for West Point. After dinner, however, General Pershing addressed Lynn county neighbors and thousands of other persons who came from nearby states. The general, with Governor Gardner, and the commander of the American expeditionary forces stood on the front porch of the house where he was born.

A silver loving cup, bought by old friends, was added to General Pershing's collection of remembrances. It was embellished with the four gold stars of a general.

A public reception at the city hall, where General Pershing shook hands with as many persons as could reach him, received a gold medal from Governor Gardner on behalf of the state, and told the crowd some of his experiences as leader of America's greatest army closed the formalities surrounding the general's visit.

An important part of the menu at the dinner was a fried dried apple pie which was prepared for General Pershing by "Aunt" Susan Hewitt, 78 years old. When he was a youngster, the general was fond of that particular variety of pie and "Aunt" Susan has often said that he used to "pester her nearly to death for them" when she and her husband conducted a tavern.

Before leaving to-night for Lincoln, Neb., to spend Christmas, General Pershing expected to call on Mrs. Hewitt, who is now an invalid and unable to leave her home.

Indianapolis, Dec. 23.—Alexander Howat, president of the Kansas district of the United Mine Workers of America, was remanded to jail by United States Judge Anderson when court recovered yesterday afternoon. Howat, who is charged with contempt of court, was granted a continuance until next Monday.

Yesterday afternoon's session of court lasted less than two minutes. When the judge took his seat he turned to Henry Warrum, counsel for Howat, and asked if he had anything to add to his statements of yesterday forenoon.

"Nothing, your honor," Mr. Warrum replied, "except to ask what amount will be required of Mr. Howat as bond for his appearance Monday."

"That is a matter for serious consideration," Judge Anderson said. "I will take that up later. Mr. Marshal, put Mr. Howat in jail."

Howat was taken to the Marion county jail. There was no indication as to when decision on the amount of bail to be required would be forthcoming.

Attorney-General Palmer Says Prices Ordinarily Drop First Two Months

Palmer Urges the People to Eliminate Extrava- gant Buying

Washington, D. C., Dec. 23.—The high cost of food, Attorney General Palmer informs the American people, will show a decline with the advent of the new year.

Retail prices ordinarily show a downward trend during the first two months of a year, the attorney general explained, and it is believed "that this trend will be accelerated by the campaign initiated by the government which is just now getting under way."

Primary factors involved in reducing the cost of living which is already under control, the attorney general said, are increased production, the elimination of extravagant buying and the determined hunting down of profiteers.

"If everyone who produces will produce his utmost, if those who buy and consume will save and eliminate extravagance, and if all honest people will join with the department of justice in stamping out profiteering and hoarding," the cost of living can be reduced, he declared.

PRICES HIGH IN ODESSA. Almost a Year's Salary to Buy a Pair of Shoes.

Berwick, Eng., Dec. 23.—The cost of living in Odessa is about 300 times more than before the war, says Miss Russell, sister of the local food controller, who has just returned from that Russian city. She lived there for two and one-half years.

A pair of boots, she says, cost from 2,000 to 3,000 rubles—a year's salary—and a dress was only to be had at a similar ruinous figure. In Odessa the day before she left the English pound was equivalent to 800 rubles instead of less than 10 as it pre-war days.

There are many worthless imitations of this mixture. To avoid disappointment, ask for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions on each bottle. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.
